

Al-Fātiḥah is the first chapter of the Quran. Its seven verses are a prayer for the guidance, lordship, and mercy of God.

B-ismi-llāhi r-raḥmāni r-raḥīmi بِسْمِ اللّٰهِ الرَّحْمٰنِ الرَّحِیْمِ

In the Name of God, the Most Beneficent, the Most Merciful.

All the praises and thanks be to God, the Lord of mankind and all that exists.

The Most Beneficent, the Most Merciful.

The Only Owner (and the Only Ruling Judge) of the Day of Judgment

You (Alone) we worship, and You (Alone) we ask for help (for each and everything).

Guide us to the Straight Path

Lord put our hearts at peace and make our tasks easier

Lord, give us good in this world and good in the hereafter

Lord bless us with mercy and provide us guidance in our lives

During this pandemic and all throughout the days to come let us pray for those who departed this life and ask God to give them eternal life

Let us pray for those who are still recovering so that they get better soon and be healthy again

Let us pray for all the frontline workers who risk their lives to save lives each and every day

Let us pray that God grant us courage and the tenacity to thrive and persevere through these uncertain and challenging times.

Let us keep the faith and pray for a safe and healthy world for everyone everywhere. Ameen.
